Want Larger Plant Than
First Thought

COMMITTEE AT WORK ON PROPOSITION

Two letters have been received from the Work Glove Co., in regards to the erection of a factory at this point, and at the regular meeting of the Booster Club at the City Hall last evening a committee consisting of Pres. Arnold Vice-Pres. Johnson, Sec. Martin and H. D. Coward was appointed to write them in regard to exactly the things they require and expect in order to induce them to locate here. They now expect to consolidate their smaller factories into one large one and Earlington will certainly be fortunate to secure this plant, which will give employment to many women and girls who are now dependent upon others or who are at present having to make a living by washing or other hard labor. There will be no excuse for any woman or girl in town being anything but self-supporting, as the factory pays good wages on the piece system. The Booster Club will make every effort to bring them here, or any other proposition that looks to the betterment of the industrial conditions of our city.

'CASCARETS' BEST IF HEADACHY, BILIOUS, SICK, CONSTIPATED

Best for liver and bowels,
bad breath, bad cold,
sour stomach

Get a 10 cent box.
Sick headache, biliousness, coated tongue, head and nose clogged up with cold—always trace this to torpid liver: delayed, fermenting food in the bowels or sour, gassy stomach.
Poisonous matter clogged in the intestines, instead of being cast out of the system is re absorbed into the blood. When this poison reaches the delicate brain tissue it causes congestion and that dull, throbbing, sickening headache.
Cascarets immediately cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels.
A Cascaret tonight will surely straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10 cent box from your druggist means your head clear, stomach sweet, breath right, complexion rosy and your liver and bowels regular for months.

Lucky

The other day down at Lakeland, Fla., at a sale, an auctioneer announced that a seven hundred and fifty dollar bracelet had been lost and owner would give fifty dollars reward. Immediately Barney Gardner walked down and handed over the lost article and received a check for fifty dollars. He rather doubted it, thinking perhaps it was an advertising scheme; but upon presenting it at the bank was given cash for same. Mr. Gardner visited Earlington last winter. He is a member of W. S. McGary's "Booster Week Company."

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Stokes and little daughter, Francis Helen of Colo., are in the city visiting Misses Corrine and Ruby Ashby.

YOU CAN'T FIND ANY DANDRUFF, AND HAIR STOPS COMING OUT

Save your hair! Make it thick wavy, glossy and beautiful at once

Try as you will, after an application of Danderine, you can not find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most, will be after a few week's use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.
A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is immediate and amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance, the beauty and shimmer of true hair health.

Get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that has been neglected or injured by careless treatment. A 25-cent bottle will double the beauty of your hair.

Christian Church Notes

Sunday marked the beginning of Bro. J. S. Hawkins' ministry with this church. The Sunday school was a very enthusiastic service with 180 present. The "Preparedness Contest" was launched and the response was gratifying. Next Sunday the buttons will be here all who come will receive either a red, white, or blue one. The morning sermon was enjoyed by a large and interested congregation. As a mark of respect the Methodist and Baptist congregations dismissed their evening service and came to hear Bro. Harkness. This courtesy was greatly appreciated by both minister and people. The special music added much to the attractiveness of the service.

All are invited to attend the services next Sunday. Special music will be a part of the evening program.

The Auxiliary to the C. W. B. M. will meet Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 at the church. Mrs. L. V. Renfro will be the leader. A social hour will follow the regular program.

REPUBLICANS OF KENTUCKY

Held State Convention At Phoenix Hill Hall. Thomas
Dixon Temporary Chairman.

PAUL M. MOOR VICE- PRESIDENT, COMMITTEE ON RULES AND ORDER

Louisville, Ky., March 1. Kentucky Republicans held their state convention this afternoon at Phoenix Hill hall to nominate two electoral candidates for the state at large, and eight delegates from the state-at-large to the National Republican convention, to be held in Chicago in June. The convention was first announced for the Gayety Theater, but investigation of the seating capacity there caused the committee to change to Phoenix Hill.

Thomas Dixon, of Scottsville, was selected by the state central committee to act as temporary chairman and J. L. McCoy of Jackson, as temporary secretary. Judge McKenzie Moss, of Bowling Green, has been practically agreed on as permanent chairman.

Kentucky is entitled to four votes from the state at large in the national convention, but eight delegates will be sent with half a vote each. The Fifth district convention endorsed two candidates, instead of one, because of this fact. Candidates who seem to have the call and whom local state leaders say will be elected without serious opposition are Edwin P. Morrow, Congressman John W. Langley, Congressman Caleb Powers, William Marshall Bullitt, former Gov. Augustus E. Willson, Judge E. C. O'Rear, Richard P. Ernst and Phil Brown, a negro newspaper man of Hopkinsville.

"Even as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so shall the protective tariff be lifted up in America if this nation would be healed," declared Thomas B. Dixon, of Scottsville, Ky., in his address as temporary chairman of the Republican state convention here today. Republican administrations from 1896 until the "disaster of 1912," Mr. Dixon asserted, composed a continuous march of progress, during which an "age of gladness, a period of happiness and contentment" was enjoyed.

A great collapse is imminent, Mr. Dixon continued, with no escape from the violent reaction when the great world war is ended.

"We will be the richest country in the world, but the least respected. All other nations will be the best armed the best drilled, the most desperate and the most needy. The great mission of the American nation should be to prepare for this awful hour, and I warn you that to meet it properly and to settle it safely will require as high order of intelligence, statesmanship and courage as this nation has ever been called upon to display.

"The Republican party has always been able to meet and successfully dispose of every danger with which our nation was confronted. No emergency ever arose but what she could furnish men of ideals and courage equal to it. No danger ever was dodged or legal responsibility avoided.

"What we all want," declared Mr. Dixon in closing his address, "is a return to the principle of 'safety first' and old time Republican prosperity."

The Second district convention today named committeemen as follow: Resolutions, Robert A. Cook, Christian; Credentials, George W. Newman, Hancock; Permanent Organization, S. C. Hellbronner, Henderson; Rules and Order, W. B. Snow, Webster; Paul Moore, of Hopkins county, vice-president; and E. W. Glass, of Christian, assistant secretary. J. W. McCulloch, of Owensboro, was chairman.

THE CITY BEAUTIFUL

CITY MANAGEMENT WORKS WONDERS.

What New Methods Have Accomplished in Certain Municipalities.

The misrule of American cities is notorious at home and abroad, writes Charles B. Strayer in Leslie's Weekly. Graft is rampant. Political spoilsmen mulct our cities and the taxpayers foot the bills. German municipalities, on the other hand, are famous throughout the world for the absence of graft and the efficiency of their administration. There the administration of cities is a distinct profession to which men devote their lives. The administrator who has made a good record in one city is called from a small municipality to a larger one.

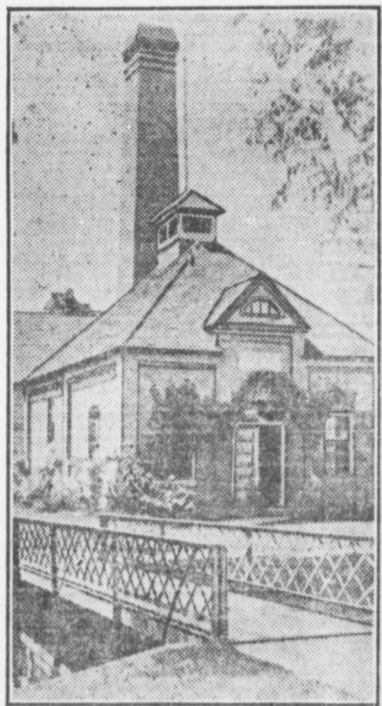

"Great industrial corporations, such as the Standard Oil company and the United States Steel corporation, are conducted with an efficiency nowhere excelled. The taxpayers can have the same results in municipal administration whenever they get thoroughly tired of being robbed by the politicians and grafters and demand municipal reform.

"An increasing number of American cities are reaping the benefits of administration by managers chosen because of proved ability to conduct great enterprises. Gaylord C. Cummins, as manager of Jackson, Mich., worked wonders in that city of 35,000 people in one year. Municipal employees were taken out of politics. Property to the value of $383,000, formerly exempted from taxation without legal reason, was restored to the tax rolls. The poor department was consolidated with the organized charities, with a trained social worker at the head. Rigid milk inspection was inaugurated and sanitary inspection made efficient for the first time. Without raising the tax rate these and numerous other reforms were inaugurated, a floating deficit of $20,000 wiped out, the city's net indebtedness reduced $50,000 and a cash balance left of $10,000, exclusive of the sinking fund."

FINANCING BEAUTY.

How a Small Michigan Town Has Made Improvements.

For years a rapid little stream wasted its energy in the heart of Paw Paw. The flats along the river were unsightly; the banks were not beautiful. At last civic pride and business instinct correlated. The uplift clubs agitated; the business men thought. At a cost of $50,000 they improved the river and formed a beautiful lake in the heart of the city, and that without condemning any valuable land. The city is more sanitary, there are hundreds of homes that now have a lake front, and all this beauty is more than self supporting. The power furnishes light for the homes, and all the city lights, used with freedom for advertising signs and illumination, come from its own power house. The light sold to private consumers more than pays for the city light.

The Woman's club in Paw Paw has a neat clubhouse and is now using it for social purposes. It is a part of the civic life. It is not selfishly locked for members only. The club has realized the financial side of community life. On reception night of the woman's week carnival the club members wore gowns purchased in Paw Paw. They published the papers for the week. It was Paw Paw week and woman's week combined—uplift, financial prosperity, health, beauty, social happiness, all to the front.

Paw Paw has gone sane on its uplift plans. The business club adopted a suggestion to control the concession and amusement features about the lake, the boating and bathing facilities, with the double purpose of saving any income from them and keeping them on the moral plane.

In this way they follow the plan adopted by a Canada club which controls all the pool halls and other places of amusement. The money gained finances the club; the moral gain helps the home. Correlation is coming at last. Ethics, art and business sense make for the better city when doing team work.—American City.

ORGANIZED TREE PLANTING BEAUTIFIES A SMALL TOWN

How the Marvin (S. D.) Commercial Club Inaugurated a Movement.

Marvin, S. D., is a small town of some 300 people located in a prosperous portion of the northeastern part of the state, about 200 miles directly west of Minneapolis, writes Herbert J. Poppelman, secretary of the Marvin Commercial club, in the American City. The town is not organized (for local reasons) and is governed by the township organization, which has two members in the county and one in the town.

The town obviously could not undertake to carry out such a proposition as tree planting at the public expense, but the Marvin Commercial club could. This is a live organization which derives from club dues and the management of local dances and other public entertainments a small annual sum which is used in public betterment. Last winter some of the members presented the idea of planting trees on the streets of the village. The matter was thoroughly discussed and plans were laid, and long before spring arrived the club had bargained for 200 ash, 200 elm and 200 box elder trees from six to eight feet tall. Exceptionally low terms were quoted by the nurseries, which were strongly in sympathy with our good intentions.

Planting 600 trees of that size is no small matter. Many members volunteered to plant twenty trees each, and others made larger offers; but, feeling assured that such a plan would not work out well, we hired two able men to dig the holes, which were about four feet in diameter and twenty-four inches deep. Then we secured volunteers among the men who had had experience in planting trees, each to give a day of his time. Other volunteers assistance was also accepted.

When the trees arrived a local Arbor day was proclaimed. Organized squads began the work, and by 5 o'clock of the second day all the trees were planted. The ladies of the town gave the workers good lunches in the middle of the morning and the middle of the afternoon, so that the hard work was made pleasant, and all enjoyed the diversion.

The summer was very favorable—a little too wet for crops, but just right for the new trees—and almost every tree grew and flourished. Many of them now measure eleven feet in height. The topography of the town site is rolling, and we placed the ash and elms on the upper streets and the box elders in the lower parts of the town. In the fall the trees were properly mulched with old straw, etc., and there is every reason to anticipate a vigorous growth in the coming summer.

Of course in every community there are a few who will not assist in any undertaking. Such people are known the world over as local knockers. There were a few of that kind in Marvin, and they almost succeeded in discouraging the lukewarm workers, but the leaders went right ahead until even the knockers were delighted to see that their knocks availed nothing. We are now making plans to lay out a park and plant it this spring with shade trees. This is a still larger undertaking, but we believe we are big enough for the job.

CHILD WELFARE PRIZES.

Kansas Rewards For Towns That Are Best For Children.

To interest the residents of Kansas in child welfare work prizes have been offered to third class towns which are the best for child rearing. The contest was arranged only recently, and already more than 300 towns have entered.

The contest is being conducted by Professor W. A. McKeever, head of the child welfare department at the University of Kansas. He had charge of a similar contest last year, when W. R. Stubbs, former governor, offered a prize of $1,000 to the city of the second class which showed the most improvement in child welfare work and was found by competent judges to be the best town of that class in Kansas in which to rear children. Winfield won that prize, and Independence received second honors.

The state is furnishing each city with a copy of the findings of the commission that picked that winner in the former contest, so that the towns will know the points upon which the scoring will be based.

The six chief points are: Opportunity for play and athletics, school work and industrial training, social and recreational activities, physical and moral safeguards, activities of child fostering clubs and societies, attendance at Sunday school and kindred organizations. The contest closes May 15.

Pay Up Week.

Pay up week, which, as its name implies, is a kind of warfare against long standing debts, was recently inaugurated in the little city of Waukon, Ia., and so successfully did it prove that in the week set apart and advertised as such over $50,000 in old accounts was wiped off the books of the local merchants. The slogan was, "You pay your bills; I will pay mine."

Bee's Annual River Contest Trip

SQUEEZING BLOOD OUT OF A TURNIP

A Lot of People Apparently Think It Can Be Done

"You" can't squeeze blood out of a turnip." This is absolutely true, but a lot of people evidently don't believe it.

You can't expect nervous, run down men and women to be cheery, normal beings. They don't get one-half out of life that they deserve. But a lot of people expect it of them.

In every community there are a legion of these men and women. Not really sick, perhaps, but affected condition so that they imagine countless things are wrong with them. They have frequent headaches, are sluggish in mind and in body and they haven't enough real energy to make them self-reliant in even the little things of life. They haven't enough rich, red blood to nourish their bodies.

Their vital organs are congested. They need something to speed up their assimilation to a normal state, something to bring back old vitality, self-reliance and a cheery view of life.

They need something that contains the right nerve food, tonic, invigorator and appetizer which will awake their sleeping energies.

Tanlac is designed especially to meet these conditions. For the relief of stomachache, kidney and liver ailments and catarrhal affections of the mucous membranes it is believed to be without an equal. It fortifies one to better encounter fatigue, exposure and the daily grand of life.

BOB ZIMMERMAN OF BULLETT COUNTY Wants to Put Teeth in The County Unit Law

THE LOUISVILLE POST HAS THE FOLLOWING TO SAY EDITORIALY

Senator Zimmerman, of Bullitt county, has introduced before the Legislature a bill to make the second conviction for "bootlegging" or selling liquor without a license, a felony and this measure is being supported not only by radical temperance men, but by many legislators who believe that such a law would go far to make the county bill effective and State wide prohibition unnecessary.

The "bootleggers" are, in many cases, men without political influence who violate the laws of the State in regard to the sale of liquor because the rewards are at times large and the existing penalties are sometimes small. Every now and then some man of some political influence indulges in this business. The evening Post published Wednesday the facts relative to a man convicted both in the County and Circuit Courts of Webster county for selling whiskey without a license who was promptly pardoned of a jail sentence by Gov. Stanley, and we suppose it is a safe inference that this man was not without influential friends.

Mr Zimmerman wishes the State to put "teeth" into the law that forbids the sale of liquor in dry territory. He would permit the law to stand as it is for the first offense, but would make a second offense punishable by confinement in the penitentiary.

The State already recognizes the gravity of repeated violations of law. A man convicted a third term on a felony charge must go to the penitentiary for life as a habitual criminal. Senator Zimmerman believes that the way to rid the State of "bootleggers" is to make the second conviction a felony.

Pretty Compliment.
In Princeton one day a girl was dashing stationward when a train pulled out.

"Oh, dear!" she cried to a passerby, who happened to be Woodrow Wilson. "Is that the 5 o'clock train?" "Yes, I'm afraid it is," he answered. "Then," she exclaimed in despair, "I've missed it!" "No, no," said Mr. Wilson, bowing and smiling gallantly. "No, no. It would be much better to say that the train has missed you."—Detroit Free Press.

GALOMEL DYNAMITES A SLUGGISH LIVER

Crashes into sour bile, making you sick and you lose a day's work

Calomel salivates! It's mercury. Calomel acts like dynamite on a sluggish liver. When calomel comes into contact with sour bile it crashes into it, causing cramping and nausea.

If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your druggist and get a 50 cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone, which is harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money.

If you take calomel today you will be sick and nauseated tomorrow besides, it may salivate you, while if you take Dodson's Liver Tone you will wake up feeling great, full of ambition and ready for work or play. It's harmless, pleasant and safe to give to children: they like it.

Some Jumper.

Flanagan, shingling the roof of the barn, lost his grip and tumbled to the ground. The farmer saw him fall and rushed out, thinking to find the man killed or badly wounded. But to his astonishment Flanagan was up and jumping about, dusting off his clothes. "Man, aren't you hurt?" the farmer asked.

"Hurt? No," Flanagan replied. "Why, if I'd had on me runnin' shoes I could 'a' leapt twice as far."—Exchange.
